

Oldest Resident In City Reaches Century Mark

Mrs. T. I. Gwillim Enjoys Exceptional Health
Lived Here 67 Years

Bristol's oldest resident is observing her 100th birthday today. She is Mrs. Thomas Ingraham Gwillim who at present is living at the Tyler Nursing Home, 88 Maple Street, prior to which time she lived at the Spring Nursing Home for four years.

Born November 12th, 1842 in Standish, Maine, she is the daughter of Jonathan Moore and Sara (Denrett) Moore. Most of her early life was spent in Standish and Portland, Maine.

In 1854 she attended the Standish Academy from where she was graduated. As was most unusual in those days, Mrs. Gwillim studied Latin and French, along with other
